

From the Pastor...

This Sunday

We are beginning a new series in worship Sunday from Philippians chapter three, the goal of which is to deepen our lives in Christ. Too many people seem satisfied to stay in the shallow waters of the faith, but God is calling us to a more profound maturity and deeper love for him that leads to a transformed life of significance that brings greater glory to God.

Regarding the location of the worship service on campus, the plan at the moment is to be in the stadium since the weather promises to be clear and not as cold. Our deacons meet next week, and we will discuss the potential of moving indoors for worship soon based on the declining rates of infection and the rising number of our people who have the vaccine.

Lenten Devotionals

You may have noticed the change in the daily devotionals, we are pleased to have this opportunity to collaborate with the downtown churches and pastors to take an expository look at Psalm 22 during the 31 weekdays during Lent. I am one of the five pastors, so you will hear from one of us each day as we take this important journey. This Psalm was quoted by Jesus on the Cross, and each verse has a powerful truth that speaks to us daily.
